Gemmel Moore & Timothy Dean

SYNOPSIS:

The intimate award-winning true crime documentary Gemmel & Tim explores the lives and untimely passings of Gemmel Moore and Timothy Dean, two Black gay men who both died from meth overdoses at the home of West Hollywood politico Ed Buck. Their deaths at the now-infamous apartment sent shockwaves through the LGBTQ+ community. The ensuing media circus cooked up a spicy concoction of sex, drugs, race and politics, but had no appetite for the in-depth human stories of who these individuals truly were. This documentary looks at Gemmel and Tim's parallel walks of life through the eyes of their extended and chosen families – memories, correspondence, and things they did and didn't share with each other. Through intimate recollections of their lost friends, each character exposes their own personal journey in dealing with grief. Powerful and galvanizing, GEMMEL & TIM simultaneously investigates the crimes and offers a cautionary tale to keep these events from repeating.

CREATIVE TEAM:

Michiel Thomas – Director/Executive Producer/Cinematographer/Co-Editor/Writer:

Belgian native Michiel Thomas (35) is a documentary filmmaker based in Los Angeles, CA. His debut Game Face was distributed by Netflix in 2016, screened at more than 50 film festivals worldwide and won 12 awards, including the Audience Award at Frameline 2015. His next feature doc That's Wild (2020) was sold to PBS and AMC Networks, screened at 30+ film festivals and won 4 awards.

Filmmaker's Motivation:

Being part of the LGBTQ+ community in Los Angeles, this is a story I'm extremely passionate about for many reasons. According to the DCD, from 2008 to 2017, the number of fatalities from meth in LA county rose by 707%; approximately one death per day. An alarming trend that I witness with my own eyes – in 2020 I myself lost a friend due to the meth epidemic.

I'm a member of the LA gay basketball league (LAMBDA), where Tim Dean used to play, so Tim's death has affected my close social circle deeply. I hear their outcry for justice and I want to play my part in ensuring Gemmel and Tim's deaths weren't in vain. By shedding a light on their lives, told by authentic voices who knew them best, I want to provide Gemmel and Tim's extended family a platform to grieve, to show who their friend really was, and to offer solutions to prevent these tragic events from happening in the future. I am extremely blessed to collaborate with very talented, diverse and beautiful souls on this project:

Michael Franklin – Producer:

Michael Franklin is an American actor and producer. He plays the recurring role of Young Leander "Shreve" Scoville on the Apple TV+ drama series Truth Be Told. His most recent appearance is in the series Atypical on Netflix and 9-1-1: Lone Star on FOX. Michael Franklin is one of the producers on Michiel Thomas' previous documentary feature That's Wild and a longtime friend.

Niq Lewis – Producer, Editor & Writer:

Niq Lewis is an award-winning promo editor with over 10 years experience editing narrative and commercial content for clients that include Vice Media Group, TV ONE, BET, Food Network, Fox, Lifetime, Macy's, Home Depot, and Booz Allen Hamilton, to name a few. Most recently she edited the Netflix feature documentary In Our Mothers' Gardens.

Remy M Ndow – Animator:

Remy M Ndow is a graduate of the Royal Academy of Fine Arts Antwerp in Belgium. He has cut his teeth working on film and television projects with Anthony Nti, commercials and video clips for artists such as Darrell Cole, Bart Peeters and Helen. His commercial work includes clients such as JBC, Levis Paint and Scarlet.

Willard Hill – Composer:

Willard Hill is an American rapper, singer-songwriter, and producer from New Orleans, LA. Hill got his start in song writing and producing working with Wyclef Jean and Jerry Wonda after moving to New York City in 2008. He currently lives in Los Angeles and works on music and film compositions.
